Nashville, Feb. 24.-Col. Duncan B Cooper, who, with his son, Robin J. Cooper, and J. D. Sharp, is charged with the murder of ex-Senator Carmack, was the only witness examined to-day, continuing the testimony begun yesterday. He occupied the stand for five hours, Would Veto Bill Not Submitduring which time the procedings were unusually interesting.

As soon as the State entered upon the cross-examination counse! for that side sprung another of the series of sensations that have marked the progress of STANDS FOR LOCAL OPTION the case by the allegation that the witness was a defaulter to the extent of and master of Maury County many years ago. This was, of course, intended as an attack on the credibility of the witness. The attorneys for the defense immedi-
